

		6	European Potential
		8	Executive Overview
		16	Ship Moves
		20	Operator Overview
		23	European Orderbook
		24	Market Capacity Projections
		28	2019: Overview
		29	2027: Outlook
		30	European Cruise Brands
		32	2019-2027 Market Overview
		42	Market Segments
		44	Key Sailing Regions
		48	Cruise Line Profiles
		48	MSC: 'Growing'
		50	MSC's 'Caribbean Paradise' at Ocean Cay
		52	Carnival Brands: Headwinds
		54	Costa: 'Tribute to Italy'
		58	Costa: Trail Blazing
		60	Costa China: Following Demand
		62	TUI: Growth and High Guest Satisfaction
		66	AIDA: Appetite for Making History
		68	Royal Caribbean: Three Brands in EMEA
		70	Pullmantur: Spanish Potential
		72	CMV: Custodians of Tradition
		74	P&O UK: New Ships
		76	Celestyal: Building Capacity
		77	Abou Merhi: Kings of Beirut
		77	Club Med: French Sail Ship

		78	CroisiEurope: Set to Explore the World
		79	ETS: Turkish Push
		79	Noble Caledonia: Three Sisters
		80	Phoenix Reisen: Classic Ships
		81	Sea Cloud: New Ship for 2020
		82	Fred. Olsen: 'Heart of the Destination'
		83	Cunard : Fourth Ship
		84	FTI: Celebrating Berlin's Anniversary
		86	Hapag-Lloyd: Earnings Beat
		88	Ponant: Taking Over
		90	Oceanwide: Hondius Debuts
		92	Hurtigruten: Expanding Fleet
		96	PolarQuest: Niche Success
		98	Iceland ProTravel: Seasonal Demand
		100	Marella: More Ships, Balanced Mix
		102	Saga: Soon To Be Youngest Fleet
		104	Plantours: Niche Operation
		105	Havila: 4 Ship Program for 2021
		106	Mano: New Ship for 2019
		107	Scylla: New Market Entrant
		108	Black Sea Cruises: Russians Refine Program
		109	Hebridean Island: Princess Program
		109	Voyages to Antiquity: Cultural Enrichment
		110	Nicko: debut Season, Small Ship Strengths
		111	Hansa: Germa Niche
		112	Key Ports