

Table of Contents

18

22

Executive Overview

10

Looking Normalized	10
What Is An Expedition Ship?	16
Green Ships	18
Quoted	20
Key Players	22
The Potential Disrupters	34
Orderbook	36
Berth Prices	38
A New Class of Ships	40
Expedition Market Capacity	52
Infographic	52

Expedition Market Capacity

54

2023-2024 Antarctica Projection	59
2023-2024 Antarctica Projection: Big Ships	60
2023 Arctic Projection	61
Data Overview/Glossary	62
2019-2027 Overview by Operator	63
Capacity Breakdown: Ship by Ship	73
Regional Market Reports	84
Fleet Deployment	90
Ships in Limbo	102
Recent Ship Transactions	102

Editorial Coverage

104

Silversea: Dominant Force	104
Lindblad: Most Diversified	108
Ponant: Business Strong and Growing	112
Hurtigruten: New Explorations	116
Hurtigruten: 100 Million Euros of Upgrades	120

63

112

Table of Contents

122

SunStone: Set to Build More Ships	122
Seabourn: Ultra Luxury Product	124
Atlas: Moving to Epicurean Focus	128
Scenic: Double Eclipse	130
Scenic: Twice as Scenic	132
Havila: Hybrid Product	134
Quark: Penguin Promises	136
Heritage: New Ship Shines	138
Aurora: Doubling Capacity	140
Coral: Branching Out	142
Australis: Seasonal Program Back In Action	144
Poseidon: New Bookings	146
Antarctica21: Exclusively Antarctica	148
Alaskan Dream: One Destination	150
Metropolitan Touring: Galapagos Plans	152
Oceanwide: Seeking Southern Lights	154
True North: Expanding in Australia	156
Northern Xplorer: Target Is Zero Emissions	158
Swan Hellenic: Crucial Year	160
Viking: Unique Expedition Programming	162
G Adventures: New Bookings Coming In	164
V.Ships: Leveraging Huge Scale	166
Iceland Pro: Seasonal Experts	168
Polar Latitudes: True Antarctic Experience	170
UnCruise: Business Trending Up	172
Anglo-Eastern: Operational Excellence	174
Vantage: Two Ships In Operation	176
Vantage: At the Helm of Ocean Explorer	178
Vantage: Operating Remotely	180
Albatros: Growing To 2 Ships	182
Exploris: New Entrant	184
Adventure Canada: Continuous Innovation	185
Lindblad: Supply Chain Considerations	186

130

136